

Advanced Diploma in:

Social Care, Supported Housing and Disability Management (Full Time)

OUR PLEDGE TO YOU

1. Our courses are widely recognised by employers and appropriate professional organisations.
2. We offer specialist and unusual courses, many completely unique to Trans-Atlantic College.
3. There is a money back guarantee if you are not satisfied by the end of the first class
4. Flexible payment schemes are available on many courses (instalments, discounts if you pay in full at time of enrolment)
5. We have impartial and helpful staff who will be pleased to assist you with your queries whatever they are.
6. We offer a friendly and pleasant learning environment.
7. Finally and most importantly – your success is our success – that means we are absolutely dedicated to helping you achieve your learning goals through your study. Over 70% of our students come to us through personal recommendation, so we know we are already delivering courses that make students happy, but we want to do even better. We therefore invite you to be part of success story for the future.

About Trans-Atlantic College

Trans-Atlantic College is accredited by the Accreditation Service for International Colleges (ASIC). ASIC is an accreditation body that is recognised by the government of the United Kingdom.

This course is recognised by the Institute of Healthcare Management, UK

Trans-Atlantic College is rated as a Grade 'A' College on the UK Border Agency Register of Sponsors.

About this Course

This course is taught and assessed at level 4/5 on the National Qualifications Framework (NQF)

The course is suitable for you if you are already working in community and social care, housing organisations, or you intend to work as a support worker, community care worker, homelessness officer, housing officer, social welfare officer, resettlement officer, child carer, or work with the elderly and people with disabilities, as an officer in public or private homes or an officer in other related areas. You can also use this course as an access to courses in nursing, social work, probation service and social policy.

Course Contents

YEAR 1

Module 1 – Social Care, Disability and Special Needs (15 credits)

Poverty & the philosophy of Housing Management
Community Care Act & the Philosophy of Care
Care for the elderly
Disability: An introduction
Those with Physical Disabilities
Those with Learning Difficulties

Those with Mental Illness
Child care, Abuse & Protection
Domestic Violence & Abuse
Depression and Suicide
HIV and AIDS
HIV and Tuberculosis

Module 2 – Administration of Social Welfare and Benefits (15 credits)

Poverty and Social Welfare
Administration and Classification of Welfare Benefits
Different Types of National Insurance Contributions

Immigration Rules and Public Funds
Various types of Welfare Benefits discussed

Module 3 – Social Care and Supported Housing (15 credits)

Terminal illness & Bereavement
 Causes, Consequences & Prevention of Homelessness
 The Homeless Mentally Ill
 Marriage and Divorce
 Adoption and Foster Care
 Crime and Society

Drug and Alcohol Abuse
 Ethnic Minorities and Care
 Care and Protection of Animals
 Resurgence of the Slave Trade
 Customer Care and Quality

Module 4 – Law Relating to Social Care, Supported Housing and Special Needs (15 credits)

English Legal System
 Civil and Criminal Liability
 Contract Law
 Agency Law
 Negligence
 Nuisance
 Trespass
 Occupier's Liability & Defective Premises
 Employer's Liability for Health & Safety
 Law Relating to Standard of Care
 Right to Self-Determination & Consent to Treatment
 Legal Aspects of Mental Illness

Law Relating to Homelessness
 Law of Child Protection
 Assisted Suicide & Mercy Killing
 Abortion
 Sentencing & Rehabilitation of Offenders
 Harassment and Unlawful Eviction
 Discrimination, Equal Opportunities and Diversity
 Freedom of Information
 Access to and Disclosure of Medical Records
 Immigration Rules and Public Funds
 European Convention on Human Rights

Module 5 – Management and Economics (15 credits)Management

Principles of Management
 Qualities of the Manager
 Managers and their Staff
 Frustration
 Motivation & Job Satisfaction
 Delegation

Training and Development
 Time Management
 Customer Service & Quality
 Information Technology
 Decision Making & Problem Solving
 Stress Management

Economics

The Free Market Economy
 The Financial System & Money
 Inflation
 Interest Rates
 Exchange Rates
 Unemployment

European Monetary System & Single Currency (EURO)
 International Business, Trade & Protectionism
 Balance of Payments
 The World Bank
 International Monetary Fund

Module 6 – Research Methods (15 credits)YEAR 2*Module 7 – Field Practice (15 credits)

(Practical application of knowledge)

Module 8 – Research Project (30 credits)Course Delivery and Attendance

The course is delivered in a variety of methods, including direct lectures, case studies, tutorials, group work and field practice.

Assessment

Assessment of this course is based on essay-based written assignments, reports, presentations, research projects and direct examinations.

Duration

2 years (full-time study)

Tuition Fees

Year 1: £3,500

Year 2: £2,500 + £250 Research Project Fee

Entry Requirements

Applicants should:-

- a) Students must have completed a recognised certificate or diploma in any field, or
- b) be aged 21 or over
- c) Meet the English Language Requirements

English Language Requirements

To be considered for admission, you must show competence in spoken and written English, in addition to meeting the entry requirements above.

Commencement Dates

September, January and May each year

Course Code: FT SC